Annual Literary Festival celebrated in Dnyanprassarak Mandal's College and Research Centre,
Assagao
Organized by
Department of English

The Literary Association in collaboration with the Department of English of Dnyanprassark Mandal's College and Research Centre, Assagao recently organized its annual Literary Festival-SONOROUS 2019. The week-long festival hosted various inter-class competitions followed by a Grand Literary Finale and Prize Distribution Ceremony on the concluding day. Artifacts-an exhibition cum sale of the arts and handicrafts made by the students was also displayed. The Literary Festival every year through its various activities thrives to create a platform wherein the students can hone their literary tastes.

Sonorous 2019 hosted various inter-class competitions like 'Just a Minute', 'Repatee', 'News-Views', 'What's the Good Word', 'Let's Soliloquize', 'Ad Mad Show', 'Snap Cap' and 'Spell Well' on literary and communicative skills. Around 120 students from different classes enthusiastically participated in the various competitions. In a very competitive and artistic spirit the students were seen taking their interest in language and literature through the on stage- and off stage events.

The Literary Finale and the Artifacts exhibition on the concluding day were the highlight of the event wherein the students enthralled the audience through their performance. In a variety entertainment programme, students presented a musical rendition of Paul Laurence Dunbar's poem 'We Wear the Mask', a dance- drama act on Women Empowerment, a play on Robinhood and a fashion show thematized on John Milton's 'Paradise Lost'. Few students recited poems written by them on the stage. At the Prize Distribution Ceremony, Dr. M. Shanthi welcomed the gathering. Speaking on the occasion, the Principal Dr. D. B. Arolkar appreciated the hard work of the Literary Association and the Department of English for organising such events and motivated the students to continue such creative ventures. Winners of the various competitions were felicitated on the occasion. The Sonorous Star Talent Award for the overall best performance in the festival was shared by two students- Ms. Renu Sahani and Mr. Francis Rebello of FYBCom. Ms. Sarika Misra, the organizing secretary proposed the vote of thanks.
