

Name of Event: Drug Free India Campaign

Date: 19th Feb 2019

The Art of living foundation launched a Nationwide Drug free India campaign in a move to create awareness on substance abuse- the campaign was launched at Chandigarh University in Feb 2019 where nearly 30,000 students took a pledge to stay away from drugs with the slogan, “Drugs na karunga na karne dunga”. Those in attendance included Art of Living founder Sri Sri Ravi Shankar, Punjab Governor V P Singh Badnore, pop singer Badshah, comedian Kapil Sharma and actor Sanjay Dutt among others.

These famous faces took to the stage to share their thoughts on drug abuse, and also encouraged students not to fall down this path.

The entire event was telecast Live and Our college also participated in this campaign with many students attending the live telecast of this event. The college was awarded with a certificate of Appreciation by The Art of Living foundation.
