REPORT ON “BEST ATTIRE (FREEDOM FIGHTERS) COMPETITION” AND STREET PLAY
(2026-2027)

Ek Bharat Shrestha Bharat Cell

The Ek Bharat Shrestha Bharat (EBSB) Cell of the college organised an inter-class “Best Attire (Freedom Fighters) Competition” on 14th August 2026 at 1:00 p.m. in the R. T. P. Auditorium as part of the Independence Day celebrations.

The competition aimed to create awareness among students about the contributions and sacrifices of India’s freedom fighters and to encourage them to learn about and portray their lives and personalities. Participants dressed up as specific freedom fighters and presented a prominent dialogue associated with their chosen personality. They were also encouraged to use relevant props and accessories, while maintaining historical authenticity and respecting the sentiments of all.

A total of 9 students participated in the competition. The participants were judged on the basis of costume, dialogue, presentation, authenticity, and relevance.

The winners of the competition were:

First Prize: Mr. Saleem Manihar – TYBCOM.D

Second Prize: Ms. Anjali Naik – SYBCom.A

Third Prize: Mr. Shreyas Gadgil – SYBA

The competition provided students with an engaging opportunity to express their creativity while developing a deeper understanding and appreciation of India’s freedom struggle. The enthusiastic participation of the students made the event successful and meaningful.

The EBSB Cell congratulates all the participants and winners for their enthusiastic involvement and contribution towards making the Independence Day celebrations memorable.

The Ek Bharat Shrestha Bharat (EBSB) Cell of the College organized a street play on 15th August 2026, as part of the commemoration of the 80th Independence Day of India. The programme was conducted immediately after the flag hoisting ceremony in front of the College Main Building.

The street play was based on the theme “Har Ghar Tiranga 2026 and Partition Horrors Remembrance Day”. The programme aimed to create awareness among students and the college staff about the significance of the national flag, patriotism, national unity and communal harmony. Through the street play, the participants highlighted the sacrifices and sufferings associated with the partition of India and conveyed the importance of remembering the tragic experiences of partition while promoting peace, harmony and national integration.

The programme served as an effective medium of communication and awareness, enabling the audience to connect with the themes through an engaging and impactful performance.
